Sydney Opera and Harbour Bridge – what a great city!

Learn English Down Under

Sydney is a vibrant and dynamic city waiting to be explored.

The laid-back outdoor lifestyle and natural beauty make Sydney – Australia's oldest and biggest city – a great city to visit. It's the gateway to Australia, set on one of the world's most stunning harbours, which extends either side in a golden chain of easy-to-reach, inner-city beaches. Sydney is one of the world's easiest and most pleasant cities to visit. The people who live here are a friendly, energetic bunch with a tell-it-like-it-is approach to life.

When it comes to which city is Australia's true global city, there's no argument. It's Sydney – with its sense of style, its love of sport and exuberant celebrations including New Year's Eve and Australia Day.

The harbour is its natural playground, the dominant factor in so much of what the city has to offer. The city has a wide-ranging cultural life, dynamic food scene and vibrant cityscape of outstanding contemporary and colonial architecture. Catch the perfect wave at famous Bondi or Manly, dine out at waterside in the historic Rocks precinct, by the beach at Balmoral or on the wharf at Woolloomooloo Wharf. Climb to the very top of Sydney Harbour Bridge's huge, over-arching span, by day or night with BridgeClimb.

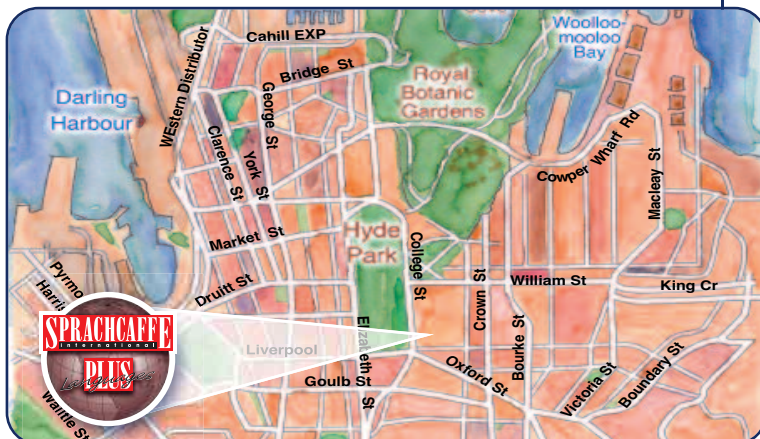

Be inspired by a wonderful, magical performance at the Sydney Opera House or enthralled by one of the best Aboriginal art collections in the world at the Art Gallery of New South Wales.
